Meet our Mentors!!

Each family that comes to the Agape Center for assistance is assigned a Mentor to work with them each time they come. The Mentor is there to listen, pray, encourage, and help set goals in the following areas: Employment, Education, Spiritual, and Physical. As you can see by the testaments below this is a blessing not only for our clients but also for our Mentors.

Mentoring clients at the Agape Center for me is more about listening than instructing. When my client realizes that I am not going to lecture him or tell him what he should do to straighten out his life, he really opens up and tells me what is going on in his life, he really opens up and tells me what is going on in his life- injuries, health issues, family relationships, and of course, his current frustrations. He usually knows his weaknesses and faults and what he needs to do. Sometimes, what he needs most is encouragement. Then, I can pray with him, if he is a believer or for him asking God to touch his life showing His never ending love for him. -- Don Frase

To me it is a humbling and awesome experience. I come to listen to them, to comfort and console, to encourage and strengthen them with the word of God. I want the client to know they have great value and worth, to know that God loves them and cares about them. They soon trust you with their heart's secrets, pains, and hopes and after prayer you see them leave with renewed strength and peace. That's why I come each week. It's never gets old and I want to be there through the tears, pain, laughter, and joy. I want to be there and see God touch their hearts with His love. -- Gini Lohmeyer

Mentoring is what sets Agape apart from other mercy ministries. It has been exciting for me to develop a relationship with my clients; because as we get to know each other better, we become more open and transparent with one another. Being a mentor gives me the opportunity to depend upon the Holy Spirit to work in me as well as in my clients. The needs of these ladies are often overwhelming, but God is able to change lives and use circumstances for our good and His glory. I am thankful to be part of this wonderful ministry. -- Marti Anderson

The Agape Center tended to the needs of 348 families and 1018 individuals in the month of May and 368 families and 1091 for the month of June!!!
